

Create High Performance Teams that Build Community.

Get frontline training, realtime coaching and support from business owners and professionals who've been where you are.

Flexible pricing and customized modules available. Let's discuss your economic development, business and entrepreneurial vision and goals.

Expert Coaching

Get the right people behind you. We've faced the same business challenges you are. We can help you see around corners, turn blockers into passionate followers, and create a team who jump out of bed and show up at work before you do.

Pull Together

Indigenous administrations and economic development departments work hard to develop their focus. Full Circle is fully customizable and gets your teams and leaders pulling in the same direction with real world modules focused on finance, leadership, operations, change management and more.

Anywhere. Anytime

Our online learning platform takes away the stress. Teams can go at their own pace, and pick-up right where they left off.

Save Money

Stretch your training dollars. You'll give your team and community the skills they need to succeed, while cutting your training costs.

Startup Support

We're here to help you put your idea to work, get you up and running or to talk things through when things aren't going so smooth. We're in this with you for the long haul.

"We're ready and more excited than ever to share our culture with the world"

—Marcel Gagnon, Lheidle T'enneh Entrepreneur

"Indigenous Worx helped me build strong relationships with my team. More than ever, they have confidence in my ability to support them"

—Lee Sinclair, Director of Operations, Paskwayak Business Development Corporation
